Josh's statement is incorrect because 8 should be represented by a group of 5 and 3 individual tallies, not 8 individual tallies.

The tally chart can be completed in various ways. It must show that more than 6 children but fewer than 15 children travel by bike. It must also show that fewer than 15 children travel by bus. The number of children who travel by car must be greater than 6 but fewer than the number chosen for those who travel by bike.

Here is one possible answer.

Travel to School	Tally
walk
bicycle
car
bus
scooter
