

Annual Pancake Race 2025

A huge well done to Brendon House this year winning the overall race with 150 points! Quantocks, Blackdowns and Mendips each got 50 points and were joint second. It was an absolute pleasure to see the older children showing Beech class how to do it! Well done everyone.

Ash and Oak Roof

The children will be back in their normal classrooms on Monday 10th March. A big well done to all the children for calmly working in their new environments and not being phased by it at all.

Jumpers

Please label school clothes clearly. If names are unclear, it cannot be helped that things go missing or end up in the wrong place. Thank you for your help!

Bringing Books to Life Workshop-World Book Day!

The children had an incredible day acting and dancing to The Gingerbread Man and Kensukes Kingdom. It was lovely to see the children explore learning through movement, drama and music. This is not always an activity where children automatically join in, however it was lovely to see all the children grow in confidence within each session.

Snacks

Please give your child a healthy snack every day for playtime. As a school that encourages healthy eating please provide fruit, chopped fruits, vegetable sticks, Houmas/dips, cereal bars etc. Please do not bring foods that contain nuts, we are a no nuts school. Thank you for your support!

A huge thank you to Fiona Guest who taught science to each class today, inspiring young minds about how science helps to shape the world and future. It was wonderful to see the children so engaged and focused on your creative and practical experiments. Well done to everyone at KEPS!

Special Educational Needs Update

Where possible at KEPS we support children and families for the very best outcomes for children. We work incredibly hard to support all children and make sure that everyone feels welcome and included, 'No Outsiders'. Please see update below...

'The local authority is receiving a very high number of requests for statutory Education Health and Care Needs Assessments and continues to aim to meet statutory deadlines. We are particularly focussed on achieving this for children who are looked after. In some cases, we will be prioritising CYP in a phase transition year, particularly those in Year 6. However, our backlog currently is at around 12 weeks. This may increase if the level of requests increase.'

This is a national issue, where there is not enough EP capacity to meet the current demand. Nationally, EHC Needs Assessments have increased by 140% since 2014 and meeting the 20-week deadline to issue an EHCP is less than 50%.

Learning Evaluation Week

It is always lovely to see the children fully involved in lessons, activities and engaged in teaching that accelerates their learning. Thank you to all the wonderful staff who work tirelessly to provide intriguing lessons and fun activities on a daily basis.

Success through Teamwork!

Red Nose Day

We will be raising money for Red Nose Day on Friday 21st March. Please join us by dressing up in red and spots. We will be taking a voluntary donation on the school gates, and we will be raising money in school by telling jokes, teachers will be dressing up and there will be several activities throughout the day. Please join in for this very worthy cause!

Joke Assembly – Wednesday 19th March

On Wednesday children will be invited to tell a joke in assembly in exchange for 50p

The jokes will need to be written down and given to Mrs Meeten by the end of Tuesday 18th so they can be checked and agreed before the children can tell them in assembly.

Mufti Day - Friday 21st March

Children can dress up in Red or 80's 90's disco gear for a contribution to comic relief for £1 cash only.

Daytime Disco - Friday 21st March

The teachers will be holding a KS1 disco and a KS2 disco for some funky fun, at some point during the school day. If your child wishes to participate, they will need to bring £1 to get onto the guest list for the disco.

What Parents & Carers Need to Know about

HOW TO COMBAT ONLINE BULLYING

Defined as "ongoing hurtful behaviour towards someone online", cyber-bullying makes its victims feel upset, uncomfortable and unsafe. In the digital world, it has numerous forms – such as hurtful comments on a person's posts or profile; deliberately leaving them out of group chats; sharing embarrassing images or videos of someone; or spreading gossip about them. Cyber-bullying can severely impact a young person's mental health ... so, in support of Anti-Bullying Week, we've provided a list of tips to help trusted adults know what to look for and how to respond to it.

- 1. GET CONNECTED
Playing online games together with your child or connecting with them on social media (providing they're old enough) is not only fun but also an excellent way of establishing some common ground to discuss things you've both seen or done online – as well as keeping an eye on who your child is communicating with in the digital world.
- 2. KEEP TALKING
Regular chats with young people about their online lives are good practice in general, but they can also be an excellent refresher to help prevent cyber-bullying situations. Topics you might want to revisit include why it's important to only connect online with people we know and trust, and why passwords should always remain secret (even from our best friends).
- 3. STAY VIGILANT
Observe your child while they're using technology and just after they've used it. Are they acting normally, or out of character? Possible signs of a problem may include seeming quiet or withdrawn, jumpy or anxious, angry or repeatedly checking their phone. When you feel it's the right time, you may want to check in with them to see if everything is OK.
- 4. MAKE YOURSELF AVAILABLE
If an online bullying incident does occur, it may take a while before your child is ready to open up about what happened. Just gently remind them that they can always come to you with any problems – and that they won't be in trouble. You might also suggest a trusted family member they could turn to, in case they feel too embarrassed to tell you directly.
- 5. BE PREPARED TO LISTEN
When conversations about online bullying do take place, they're likely to be difficult, emotional and upsetting for both you and your child. Actively listen to your child while they're bringing you up to speed, and try not to show any judgement or criticism – even if they haven't dealt with the situation in exactly the way you would have hoped.
- 6. EMPOWER YOUR CHILD
Depending on their age, your child might not want a parent 'fighting their battles for them'. In that case, talk through their options with them (blocking the perpetrator, deleting the app and so on). By allowing your child to choose the path they take, you're putting them in control but are also demonstrating that you're there to support them along the way.
- 7. REPORT BULLIES ONLINE
Cyber-bullying often takes place through a particular app, social media platform or online game. If this is happening to your child, encourage them to report the offender to the app or game in question – ideally with screenshots to support their complaint. Most games and apps have reporting tools specifically to stamp out abusive behaviour and protect users.
- 8. ENCOURAGE EMPATHY
Protecting themselves online is the priority, of course, but young people should also feel empowered to help if they witness other people falling victim to cyberbullying. Even if they don't feel confident enough to call someone out on their abusive behaviour online, they can still confidentially report that person to the app or game where the bullying occurred.
- 9. SEEK EXPERT ADVICE
Victims of online bullying frequently experience feelings of isolation and anxiety, a loss of self-esteem and potentially even thoughts of self-harm or suicide. If you think that an incident of cyber-bullying has affected your child's mental wellbeing, then seek psychological support for them. There are some useful contact details in the central panel below.
- 10. INVOLVE THE AUTHORITIES
If the nature of any online bullying makes you suspect that your child is genuinely in imminent physical danger – or if there are any signs whatsoever of explicit images being shared as part of the bullying – then you should gather any relevant screenshots as evidence and report the incidents to your local police force.

FURTHER SUPPORT AND ADVICE

If you or your child need additional help with an online bullying issue, here are some specialist organisations that you could reach out to.

Childline: talk to a trained counsellor on 0800 1111 or online at www.childline.org.uk/get-support/

National Bullying Helpline: counsellors are available on 0845 225 5787 or by visiting www.nationalbullyinghelpline.co.uk/cyberbullying.html

The NSPCC: the children's charity has a guide to the signs of bullying at www.nspcc.org.uk/what-is-child-abuse/types-of-abuse/bullying-and-cyberbullying/ and can be reached on 0800 800 5000
